

“Promise Camp is my favorite because I feel free to be who God desires me to be.”

Dear friend,

This Thanksgiving, help us to continue our work of feeding hungry souls with the love and hope of Jesus.

Can you help us make sure all of the vulnerable children we serve have the opportunity to attend Promise Camp in 2018 or are matched with a godly mentor?

Your gift will go directly to help children like Samantha, a young mentee who has been able to attend Promise Camp for two summers. “Promise Camp is my favorite because I feel free to be who God desires me to be,” she said.

One-2-One Mentoring also provides the children a solid support system and reliable trusted adult in the young person’s life. Many of our youth have never had a solid foundation or positive role model in their lives.

Take sixteen-year-old Eddie for an example. He was paired with his mentor, James, last October. Eddie was abandoned by his adoptive parents. James has been able to pour out the love of God and share wisdom on abandonment, forgiveness, and grace. Since then, James said, “When attending bible studies, Eddie would begin crying because he never knew he had a heavenly Father who loved him unconditionally.” Through One-2-One, James has been able to show Eddie that unconditional love and they are now friends for life.

If you’re able, please give today. With your support, every waiting child will experience Promise Camp this upcoming season and have a positive role model.

Wishing you and your family a Happy Thanksgiving,
